1. Reportedly, a series of explosions, caused by sabotage, took place in August 1951 aboard the Soviet warship TASHKENT while it was anchored off the Danube Delta in the Black Sea.
2. Several crew members, presumably those who caused the sabotage, escaped into the interior of Rumania. The other mutineers were kept in solitary confinement and were to be returned to the Soviet Union.
3. Two political instructors were killed by the mutinous crew.
